Abstract: In recent times, a social problem has arisen in our country. The problem is eve-teasing. It is a serious social disorder. There are killings and suicides all over the country as a result of eve-teasing. The main purpose of the present article is to analyze the real causes of the growing eve-teasing problem in the country, find possible remedies and make some recommendations to the nation. So that our young people can come out of the abyss of filth and return to a comfortable and humane way of life, can be exposed to the light. The definition of eve-teasing is discussed at the beginning of the article. After that, who are the eve-teasers, who are the victims of this pain, the significant causes and remedies of eve-teasing have been discussed.

Keywords: Eve-teasing, Harassment, Violence, Molestation, Rapping, Kidnapping etc.

Introduction:

The word 'Eve' comes from the Holy Bible's 'Eve', which means Mother of the Earth. In Islam, which is called Bibi Hawa, in Hebrat it is called 'Habbah'. The term is used as a symbol of the female race. The literal meaning of the word teasing is to tease, interrupt, embarrass by teasing, teasing or teasing. No clear and unambiguous legal definition of eve-teasing has yet been determined. However, it is called 'eve-teasing' when other specific individuals, in general, refrain from natural civility, decency and morality for the sake of a specific person, when they make obscene and offensive gestures or use a sentence.

According to sociologists, the word eve-teasing is much lighter than actual cruelty, and the extent of cruelty is not understood by the word. The secret of the word eve teasing is not limited to teasing or embarrassing women. This is basically a kind of euphemism. The use of the term is seen throughout the subcontinent. In public, on the streets, on the bus, in front of the public, women are not only harassed, they are harassed, sexually harassed or sexually harassed. That is to say, there is a wrapper of sexual instinct behind the urge. This is euphemism. The wounds of sexual harassment hidden behind the harassment of scoundrels are not very clearly seen in the eyes of the society or in the eyes of the public. Only the victim understands the underlying hidden pain. This is a direct blow to the fundamental rights of free and safe movement. So, Eve teasing is a kind of horrible sexual harassment.

Most of the people involved in Eve teasing are 14-22 year old school-going teenagers and teenagers. A class of teenage boys, neighborhood scoundrels, street corner shopkeepers, peddlers, bus drivers-helpers, rickshaw pullers and in some cases traffic police, college university male colleagues can also be seen as eve teasers. They whisper when they see the girls, this is how it starts with indecent gestures. Gradually it took the form of violence, in brutality. In the past, they were called Romeo, who would sit on the rock and chat, and whistle when he saw girls. At present, those Romeos have become sex robbers, women oppressors. There is nothing wrong with their modesty, morality, values.

Young women are more likely to be victims of eve-tying violence. They are more prone to age-related fragility. On the other hand, the impact on them is severe. They easily panic. Feels like a horrible injury rather than a physical injury. Due to the torture and mental damage caused by the scoundrels, some of them even committed suicide.

Inevitable Causes and Effects:

The cause of eve teasing is not precisely one or two. Many basic factors are collectively responsible for this social disorder. However, the basic reasons are below:

1) Lack and neglect of religious discipline, 2) Extreme indifference of parents and guardians towards equality, 3) Lack of moral education at home and school, 4) Lack of moral education in education and curriculum, 5) Lack of normal respect and humanity towards human beings, 6) Aggression of internet culture, 7) Irresponsible role of print and electronic media, 8) Obscenity in various cultural activities including movies, Introduction, 11) Inadequacy of vocational education, 12) Inadequacy of law and practical failure of law, 13) Negative role of law enforcement, 14) Political patronage towards criminals and 15) Easy availability of drugs, 16) Unemployment.

The role of parents helps in this evil deed. E.g., a. Apostate or runaway parents: They have run away without taking care of their peers. Samatan has been deprived of their offspring Seneh-Mamata. B. Criminal parents: They raise Samatan in sin. Never sin with the help of equality. Parents who are supportive of misdeeds: They encourage equal crime. D. Immoral parents: They indiscriminately do and do various anti-social activities in front of equality. Incompetent Parents: They are inattentive or incapable of imparting necessary religious and moral education to their children.

In modern cities, it is common for parents to work outside the home. As a result, egalitarianism is being deprived of their proper rule and in many cases they are becoming rebellious in their behavior. It is also seen that some peers are losing their parents as a result of death or divorce. This also causes problems in the development of their normal personality and they engage in incoherent behavior and anti-social activities. It is not impossible for them to suddenly become criminals if the peers in the family environment always observe quarrels, conflicts of identity and criminal and violent activities.

Misuse of internet which took an important role to spread eve teasing in our society. The number of internet users in Bangladesh including mobile phone internet is around one crore. Kim also did not set any policies or restrictions on their use (Filtering). Unfortunately, it is true that there are cyber cafes and policies for conducting cyber cafe business in different countries, but they have not been formulated yet in Bangladesh. Due to low service charges and other disadvantages, young people are now the main customers of cyber cafes. In the name of free information technology, pornographic websites are becoming the main means of entertainment. Students are coming out of their educational institutions on various pretexts, entering cyber cafes and browsing pornographic websites through the internet. Intoxicated by a different kind of intoxication, they spend hours chatting for hours on end. One study found that about 80 percent of students use the Internet for a maximum of 20 hours per week. In addition to talking to friends, exchanging pictures, they have long discussions with strangers. This not only leads to their inattention to studies, but also to their moral character, including eve teasing and involvement in various criminal activities. Eighty-nine percent of children admit that their parents are constantly arguing with them about using the Internet. As a result, long-term family relationships are deteriorating. Thirty-five percent of them do not usually tell their parents or friends what they do on the Internet all the time.

Addiction to the popular social networking website 'Facebook'. Facebook is helping people build relationships with people. It is also true that it plays a big role in breaking up a marital relationship. A survey has found that Facebook is behind one in every five divorces in the United States. Through Facebook, the husband or the SAI is building a consensual relationship with all the women or men who are unfaithful to each other, which can be called 'infidelity'. The growing victim of this distrust is the young society.

A private survey report on students between the ages of 13 and 23 was published in the daily Naya Digmnet on 6.6.2009. The report paints a grim picture of mobile phones, with at least 100 per cent of students surveyed having a mobile phone. 40 percent of students use two sets. 80 percent also use two to three or more SIMs. Fifty percent spend four to five or more hours a day talking to a partner. Eighty percent of students spend at least two hours on it. More than 40 percent of students have had illicit sexual relations through mobile phones. Among them are 15 to 18 year olds. More than 60 percent of students have perverted sex on mobile phones.

As a result of industrialization, urbanization is accelerated and some problems arise in the industrial dependent urban life. One of these is the housing problem. As a result, the number of settlements increased and the whole city became overcrowded. Extreme housing crises have led to an increase in the number of teenagers moving around, talking, and socializing. Poverty on the one hand and living a free and group life all the time often leads to crime among teenagers. Their criminal tendencies manifest themselves in adventurous expeditions and activities. In this situation, they are sometimes alone and sometimes in small groups and commit various crimes.

Social Inequality, Misery, Lack of Supervision, Injustice, Child Abuse, Misconduct and Misconduct, Pre-Sexual Intolerance, Pre-Sexual Experience, Untimely Puberty, Disliked Workplace, Extremely Lovable Insomnia, paranoia, mother-in-law or distant relatives, living in the house of the mother or father, harassment and contempt by the owner's son, malnutrition, adulterated food, etc. make the youth guilty of various crimes including insanity, stupidity and eve teasing. Strong obstacles in the way of development.

Ways to Prevent Eve teasing:

An important and sensitive chapter of human life is youth. It is a time when a person begins to thrive in both age and intelligence, but does not become mature and mature in the true sense of the word. Naturally, this juncture in life is dreamy and intriguing. At this time he wants to know, wants to know. If he is hindered or stumbled in knowing and informing, then he becomes dumb and confused, deluded makes him a criminal, takes him to the abyss of destruction. On the other hand, if he can know, inform, get answers, get mental shelter and support, get moral initiation and inspiration, then his progress becomes inevitably beautiful, eternal and smooth. He cannot wait to say that no human being becomes a criminal. Does not grow. People are involved in crime due to the negative effects of emotions and environment due to family, social, economic, political and various other reasons.

So it is necessary to take remedial action by investigating how eve-teasers are colluding with professional criminals. For this, first of all, the combined efforts of educated gentlemen and guardians are required to maintain a good environment everywhere in the village or city, neighborhood or mahalla. It is also important to inspire them with study, creativity and religious and social values. Family, society and school environment need to be colorful.

Family responsibilities are also important to prevent eve teasing in our society. Adolescents are compared to clay. The artist can make the clay the way he wants to make it. In fact, they are as soft as clay. They grow up in family and social life. The first step of civilization is family organization. The family is a suitable school for the development of kindness, love, courtesy, humanity, tolerance, truthfulness, etc. The family can be said to be the main foundation of human life. So a well-rounded family and family responsibilities are invaluable in developing a healthy personality and preventing crime. There is no denying that the foundation of moral education is laid here which can last a lifetime. In order to prevent eve teasing of teenagers or adolescents, it is necessary to plant the seeds of positive 6 traits in this way. It is the positive seed that will give you the strength to handle the institutional drive of adolescence or adolescence or the ubiquitous waves of that instinct, will not be able to tell the evil, and will show the way to remove it from the path of ejaculation.

Role of the school is not less to prevent eve teasing among the young generation. Adolescents stay in school for a significant period of the day. School customs, etiquette, use of teachers, attitudes, syllabus, curriculum, etc. have a profound effect on the formation of minds of adolescents. Adolescents are bound to be positively affected if a school's customs and rituals are practiced and practiced in a multi-faceted and tolerant culture, including civility, civility, discipline, equality, and so on. The role of teachers is very important in this case. The gentle students were inspired by their character-madhuya, r-chimata-consciousness, manners-behavior, ratchi-lehaj, vision etc. So if the teacher is not of good character, does not possess good disposition, does not become endowed with the virtues of equality and equanimity, and above all cannot establish a clear seat in the mind of the student, then his students should learn from him Can't Teachers are the lifeblood of a school, students are vibrancy, and parents are the heart.

Thus, first and foremost there is a need for teacher training and formulation of standard and character teacher recruitment policies. In addition, the School / Madrashah syllabus-curriculum should be structured in such a way that it helps to create a set of common moral values among all youth irrespective of caste or creed, either life-oriented. At one time, the principles taught in children's education were the path of life. For example, in ideology and childhood education, there was 'don't jump', 'always tell the truth', 'lying is a great sin.' The teacher used to teach proverbs one day a week. Now it goes without saying that there is no education. The time has come; we have to go back to that. Eve teasing, on the other hand, can be prevented through the widespread expansion of career-oriented education. Generally, students who are backward in their studies are more involved in misdeeds. Realizing the inescapable truth of 'lazy brain devil's factory' and educating the underprivileged in vocational education, they will not have the mentality to give time to bad deeds.

In addition, some regulations may be helpful in preventing eve-teasing. E.g., 1. Adolescents need to be educated so that they keep their activities within a certain range and there is a feeling that 'doing out of bounds will lead to injustice'. 2. They need to create a certain moral standard. He should be allowed to understand the normal difference between right and wrong, respect for the big, love for the small, general difference between good and evil. 3. Parents should be hopeful of every equality. He needs to be helped so that they can develop a mindset of benefiting themselves and others. 4. He needs to be informed about who should be trusted and who should not be trusted. 5. They need to be given full freedom within a specified boundary and should not be hindered in any work if it is not essential. 6. Let a young person feel that they have the infinite love and deep compassion of their parents towards them and in this love there is the 'principle of equality' of their parents towards them. 7. Let Samatan believe that his parents are his friends in danger, and above all he is the unconditional protector of all time. 8. Safety: Adolescents should realize that their home is the best shelter and the safest place for them. 9. Moderation: How much should be done in various matters including usage, work, how much a work should be done, when and why a work should be avoided - etc. In each case he should be given a basic sense of moderation and general knowledge about it. 10. Adolescents need to be explained in simple and concise language. Events and visions affect them more than words. They love to imitate. Thus, parents need to present themselves as role models in refraining from lying, hypocrisy, or immorality. Parents will be the shining guarantor of an honest and beautiful person to children.

Conclusion:

The future of the country is the young generation. They are not backward in intellect and mind. Inside the country and even outside the country, they continue to bear the signature of their glorious strength, intelligence and ability. They did not hesitate to sacrifice their lives during the tragedy of the country and the nation. Unfortunately, it is true that a significant part of our glorious young society today is a victim of moral decay. They are involved in various crimes. Starting from eve-teasing, involvement in various evil deeds like disgrace to women is painting a tilak of good stigma on some of them. This is mainly due to the lack of human values. They have to be freed from this terrible clutches of the curse. This requires concerted action and implementation in light of the above recommendations. Let them be freed from the black darkness of sin and filth and be enlivened by the same advanced, humane and moral values - this is the common expectation of the whole nation.
